

Indiana Mental Health and Addiction Professionals Loan Repayment Assistance FAQ 4/13/15

Question	Answer
1. The eligibility requirements refer to “new employee” and “new graduate”. Can you define the term “new”?	After careful review, it has been determined that “new graduate” and “new employee” is described as someone who graduated or accepted employment within the last three years up to the semester of the program’s application deadline (January 2012 to present). However, priority consideration will go to those who’ve graduated or accepted employment since January 2014 to present. The year determination is on a rolling calendar. (The oldest year will roll off after each subsequent new year.)
2. Regarding loan (s) what is NSLDS?	The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the U.S. Department of Education's central database for student aid. It receives data from schools, agencies that guaranty loans, the Direct Loan program, the Pell Grant program, and other U.S. Department of Education programs. NSLDS provides a centralized, integrated view of Title IV loans and Pell grants that are tracked through their entire cycle; from aid approval through closure.
3. I graduated in 2010 but will become licensed this year. Do I qualify?	Based on the “new graduate” definition, you do not qualify for this program.
4. Do I need to submit original transcripts sealed from the school with my packet or can they be a PDF official document?	Transcripts that can be access through the student portal are accepted. Sealed transcripts are not required.
5. Does my employer have to service low poverty clients or be located in an underserved population for me to qualify?	No, your employer does not have to be located in an underserved demographic. However, applicants who are working in underserved areas will receive priority consideration.
